THE HONGKONG DISPENSARY.

Hongkong, 19th November, 1894.

French Government make all necessary sacrifices to prevent England, which has arrived later than France at the doors of Yunnan, being the first to enter and establish itself. To France we wish all success in the improvement of the routes under her control and the development of her trade, though we must necessarily deplore the spirit of colonialism which governs her policy. We do not think, however, that the Red River route and the West River route are likely to seriously compete with each other.
They will serve different districts of the country as the Shunghai route will serve a third, and in the utilization of each will lead more and more to open up the province which may even be considered to be mutually advantageous.The steamer Linda was sailed from Shanghai on this port on Monday evening.Captain Lieutenant Ingomar commanded command of the German gunboat Tilsit at Shanghai.Six Customs officers, with a military training, are said to have been drafted from some of the ports and to have been sent to Tientsin.We (N. C. Daily News) understand that there is no more fear of trouble at Peking, and Mrs.
O'Connor and Mr. Jordan are returning to the British Legation.The O. & G. steamer Belois, with mails, &c., from San Francisco to the 15th Oct., has arrived at Yokohama, and will pass to this port this morning via Nagasaki.Thirteen officers and men of the German gun-boat Tilsit have received the decoration of the Double Dragon, for saving Chinese soldiers from the wreck of the Kouping.The Shantung (Admiral) Admiral has been sent. She grounded near Bush Island and when the tide fell she commenced to burn, but as her frances could not support the strainThe N. C. Daily News says that the German officers along with the Pingyang squadron who are to proceed to Tientsin, are garrisoned by a squad of soldiers to prevent their running away with the money.Chinese merchants at Newchwang, owing to the uncertain state of affairs there, are sending their imported cargo back to Shanghai. Well do Chinese are still arriving at Shanghai from the Northern ports.There is a report that General Wei Kuok, the commander of the Shanxi division, was not expected to a conclusion now. Japan will accept an indemnity of 400,000,000 yen and the cession of the large number of good fortifications otherwise her demands will be far larger.No armistice will be granted unless China gives for peace and gives up Peking or some other pledges of bon-fides.FR SIDNEY CLEVELAND'S MESSAGE TO JAPAN.President Cleveland in his message praises the progress of Japan, and urges her landable desider to complete, domestic autonomy and to attain full equality in the family of nations.

BI-METALLISM.

(COMMUNICATED)

"Ignorant of the first principles of bi-metallism" must be the verdict of all who read the last effort of T. Wood, Secretary; or perhaps the subject of the paper would be better understood and its meaning made clearer if it were entitled "Another Egg in the Coffin of the French Bazaar." — Editor, Standard. — M. J. M. I. make not, this ambition Society proposed at one time to send a delegeate to storm England and convert the world to bi-metallism. If the Eastern Bi-metallic League of Shanghai wishes to instruct, let it give its readers some extracts from Adam Smith, Ricardo, McCulloch, Mill, or even from Mr. W. G. Moore, the less Co-moderator of the Shanghai Yacht Club, but our honourable friends in the East will be better engaged according to another version of the same. — Editor, Standard.This whole was manufactured by Messrs.
Barbier & Co., Paris, from their own specifications of the metal. — Editor, Standard.The whole was presented to the Imperial Maritime Customs. — The creation of the light and light-ke-pair's dwelling was superintended by the Assistant Envoys, Mr. J. R. Harding, M.
